

a STEP BEYOND

ANNUAL AUDITIONS

October 25th, 2014

What Is A Step Beyond?

A Step Beyond is an after school program that offers long term support for underserved youth. Children begin between the ages of 8 and 10 years of age and continue through high school graduation and beyond.

A Step Beyond is tuition free for all families.

Why Should I Audition?

Free Dance Classes

Students of A Step Beyond study modern dance, ballet, and improvisation. They also have opportunities to perform in the works of professional choreographers.

Free Tutoring

Students at A Step Beyond have access to tutors, SAT prep courses, and are supported through the process of applying to college.

Free Parent Workshops

Parents and caregivers can attend free workshops and seminars provided by A Step Beyond to support the growth of the whole family.

Free Family Counseling

Families at A Step Beyond have access to free counseling, social service referrals, and crisis intervention.

If you are interested in auditioning, we would love to hear from you. Please contact us at 760.670.3250.

About Auditions

Saturday, October 25th, 2014

Doors open at 11 am for registration and the audition begins at 12:30 pm.

California Center for the Arts, Escondido
340 N. Escondido Blvd., Escondido

The audition process may take up to several hours, although your child will not be dancing the entire time. Registration paperwork is available on our website if you wish to prepare it in advance.

A Step Beyond empowers underserved youth to transform their lives and communities through dance education, academic support, and family services programs.

Acceptance into the program at A Step Beyond is based upon:

- ✓ Financial need
- ✓ Student's demonstrated willingness to learn to dance
- ✓ Age: We are currently accepting children who are 8, 9, 10 years old on the day of the auditions, October 25th, 2014.

Children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Please have your child wear shorts and a t-shirt and bring lunch/snack. They will be asked to remove their shoes and go barefoot during the audition.

A Step Beyond is not linked to any government agency and we don't report to any city, state or federal government.
